HOW WE MAY USE AND DISCLOSE YOUR PHI

1. Treatment, Payment and Health Care Operations. As described below, we will use or disclose your PHI for treatment, payment, or health care operations. The examples below do not list every possible use or disclosure in a category.

Treatment: We may use and disclose PHI about you to provide, coordinate or manage your health care and related services. We may consult with other health care providers regarding your treatment and coordinate and manage your health care with others. For example, we may use and disclose PHI when you need a prescription, lab work, x-ray or other health care services. We may also use and disclose PHI about you when referring you to another health care provider. For example, if you are referred to a specialist, we may disclose PHI to the specialist regarding your symptoms. We may also disclose PHI about you for the treatment activities of another health care provider. For example, we may send a report about your care from us to another physician so that the other physician may treat you.

Payment: We may use and disclose PHI so that we can bill and collect payment for the treatment and services provided to you. For example, we may send your insurance company a bill for services or release certain medical information to your health insurance company so that it can determine whether your treatment is covered under the terms of your health insurance policy. We also may use and disclose PHI for billing, claims management, and collection activities. We may also disclose PHI to another health care provider or to a company or health plan required to comply with the HIPAA Privacy Rule for the payment activities of that health care provider, company, or health plan. For example, we may allow a health insurance company to review PHI relating to their enrollees to determine the insurance benefits to be paid for their enrollees' care.

Health Care Operations: We may use and disclose PHI in performing certain business activities which are called health care operations. Some examples of these operations include our business, accounting and management activities. These health care operations also may include quality assurance, utilization review, and internal auditing, such as reviewing and evaluating the skills, qualifications, and performance of health care providers taking care of you and our other patients and providing training programs to help students develop or improve their skills. If another health care provider, company, or health plan that is required to comply with the HIPAA Privacy Rule has or once had a relationship with you, we may disclose PHI about you for certain health care operations of that health care provider or company. For example, such health care operations may include assisting with legal compliance activities of that health care provider or company. Also, AFCN is a member of one or more Clinically Integrated Networks ("CINs"), including Arkansas Health Network, LLC, and Baptist Health Physician Partners and is part of one or more Organized Health Care Arrangements ("OHCAs"). We share PHI with the CINs and the OHCAs for health care operations purposes that include physician performance evaluations, controlling utilization of health care services, and determinations on whether AFCN is eligible to receive certain shared savings financial incentives.

2. Communications To You From Our Office. We may use or disclose medical information in order to contact you as a reminder that you have an appointment for treatment or other medical care, to tell you about or recommend possible treatment options or alternatives that may be of interest to you, or to inform you about health-related benefits or services that may be of interest to you.

3. Communications To Family, Friends If You Agree Or Do Not Object; Disaster Relief. We may disclose PHI to your relatives, close friends or any other person identified by you if the PHI is directly related to that person's involvement in your care or payment for your care. Generally, except in emergency situations, we will inform you of our intended action prior to making any such uses and disclosures and will, at that time, offer you the opportunity to object. However, if you are not present or are unable to agree or object to such a disclosure, we may disclose such information as necessary if we determine that it is in your best interest based on our professional judgment. We also may use and disclose your health information for the purpose of locating and notifying your relatives or close personal friends of your location, general condition or death, and to organizations that are involved in those tasks during disaster situations. We will provide you with an opportunity to agree or object to such disclosures whenever it is practical to do in a disaster relief situation.

Out of Pocket Payments. Unless otherwise required by law, we are required to agree to your request to restrict use and disclosure of your PHI to a health plan for payment or health care operations when the information you wish to restrict pertains solely to a health care item or service for which you have paid us "out-of-pocket" in full. (In other words, you have requested that we not bill your health insurance plan and have paid us yourself.)

Other Requests. You have the right to request a restriction or limitation on the PHI we use or disclose about you for treatment, payment or health care operations, or that we disclose to those who may be involved in your care or payment for your care. For example, you could ask that we not share information about a particular diagnosis or treatment with your spouse. While we will consider your request for a restriction, we are not required to agree to it. If we do agree to your request, we will comply with your request except as required by law or for emergency treatment. To request restrictions, you must make your request in writing on our Request for Additional Privacy Form to the Clinic Manager at each of the Clinic locations where additional privacy is requested.

2. Right to Receive Confidential Communications. You have the right to request that you receive communications regarding PHI in a certain manner or at a certain location. For example, you may request that we contact you at home, rather than at work. You must make your request in writing by submitting our Request for Alternative Communication Form specifying how you would like to be contacted (for example, by regular mail to your post office box and not your home) to the Clinic Manager at each of the Clinic locations where alternative communications are requested. We will accommodate all reasonable requests.

3. Right to Inspect and Copy. You have the right to inspect and receive a copy of your PHI contained in records we maintain that may be used to make decisions about your care. These records usually include your medical and billing records but do not include psychotherapy notes; information gathered or prepared for a civil, criminal, or administrative proceeding; or PHI that is subject to law that prohibits access. To inspect and copy your PHI, please contact our Privacy Officer at the address listed on the last page of this Notice. If you request a copy of PHI about you, we may charge you a reasonable fee for the copying, postage, labor and supplies used in meeting your request. We may deny your request to inspect and copy PHI only under limited circumstances, and in some cases, a denial of access may be reviewable.

4. Right to an Electronic Copy of Electronic Medical Records. If your PHI is maintained in an electronic format, you have the right to request that an electronic copy of your record be given to you or transmitted to another individual or entity. A request to transmit your record to another individual or entity must be in writing, signed by you, and must clearly identify the designated person and where to send the PHI. We will make every effort to provide access to your PHI in the form or format you request, if it is readily producible in the form or format you request. If not readily producible, your record will be provided in a readable electronic format. We may charge you a reasonable cost-based fee for the labor and supplies associated with transmitting or providing an electronic copy of the medical record.

You must submit your request to amend in writing to our Privacy Officer and give us a reason for your request. We may deny your request in certain cases. If your request is denied, you may submit a written statement disagreeing with the denial, which we will keep on file and distribute with all future disclosures of the information to which it relates.

6. Right to Receive an Accounting of Disclosures. You have the right to request a list of certain disclosures of PHI made by us during a specified period of up to six years prior to the request, except disclosures for treatment, payment or health care operations; made to you; to persons involved in your care or for the purpose of notifying your family or friends of your whereabouts; for national security or intelligence purposes; made pursuant to your written authorization; incidental to another permissible use or disclosure; for certain notification purposes (including national security, intelligence, correctional, and law enforcement purposes); or made before April 14, 2003. If you wish to make such a request, please contact our Privacy Officer. The first accounting that you request in a 12-month period will be free, but we may charge you for our reasonable costs of providing additional lists in the same 12-month period. We will tell you about these costs, and you may choose to cancel your request at any time before costs are incurred.

7. Right to Get Notice of a Breach. If there is a breach of any of your unsecured PHI, you have the right to be notified.

8. Right to a Paper Copy of this Notice. You have a right to receive a paper copy of this Notice at any time.
